WELCOME FROM DR. BOYLE

Dear New Setonians,

Welcome "Class of 2015" to the Seton Hill University community! This is an exciting time — a time of new beginnings as you look forward to the rewards that come from learning, growing, and making new friends.

You are in a special and historic place. As you walk through the traditional settings of the Administration Building, St. Joseph Chapel, Reeves Library, and Lowe Dining Hall, or while you relax on a swing or roam around the grounds, I hope the welcoming spirit of Seton Hill will be present to you. I hope you will come to share our pride in this place and in the achievements of the students before you. I ask that you support and encourage each other. For our part, we promise personal attention and an excellent academic program; we promise to listen and to teach and to recognize every day that we have earned the privilege of being selected by you.

Every member of the Seton Hill community looks forward to getting to know you. While many things are changing at the Hill, our commitment to you remains the same: You will receive an education that is distinctive, prepares you to think entrepreneurial-ly and internationally, and all the while remains personally yours.

Sincerely,

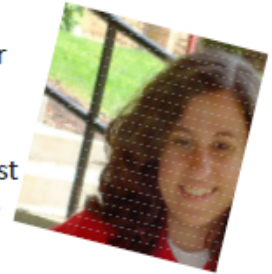

JoAnne Boyle
President

A NOTE FROM YOUR STUDENT DIRECTOR

Welcome Class of 2015!

My name is Amanda Willard and I am a senior Biology major. My favorite thing about Seton Hill is how welcoming it is. There is always a friendly face and a helping hand ready to assist you with whatever you may need. If you have any questions or concerns, don't be afraid to ask! We're all more than happy to help.

I remember being both nervous and excited during my first few days at Seton Hill, as I am sure many of you are. I know that all of this can seem overwhelming at first, but don't worry, you aren't alone! Don't hesitate to introduce yourself to someone new, or invite them along to an event; you never know, it could be the start of a great friendship! I hope that Seton Hill soon becomes your home away from home, as it has for so many of us. Take advantage of the various activities we have planned for you, try some new things, and meet some new people. Most importantly HAVE FUN! Seton Hill is full of amazing opportunities, so consider this a fresh start, a chance to become whoever you want to be. This experience is what you make it. Use this time to let loose, settle in, and make some great friends before your classes start.

You'll see that the Orientation staff as well as other members of the SHU community will be at the fun events and activities taking place during Griffin Days and Welcome Week to help welcome you and make your start here at Seton Hill a memorable one. I hope that you all have a great weekend, and that the beginning of your college career here, as a Seton Hill Griffin, is a positive experience. I look forward to meeting as many of you as I can! Good luck and welcome to Seton Hill!

STUDENT-BODY ACTIVITIES COUNCIL

The Student-Body Activities Council, popularly named SAC, is an organization run by students largely responsible for planning events for the rest of the student body. More importantly, it's a great way to get involved, meet new people, attend conferences, take on leadership positions, and much more!

Throughout the year SAC works hard to put on fun and exciting events. These can run the gamut from coffee houses, bingo nights, comedians, the annual Spring Thing, to concerts. Participating in SAC gives you the opportunity to have a say in which performers are brought to campus, and stay in the know!

For more information on getting involved in one of the more happening groups on campus send us an email or stop by our office.

SETON HILL GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Seton Hill Government Association (SHGA) would like to welcome you all to Seton Hill! SHGA holds many fun events throughout the year such as Midnight Bingo, which is always a favorite, and Battle of the Buildings. Also, if you are interested in making a difference during your time here at Seton Hill you should consider signing up for one of the Class of 2015 Officer positions on the bulletin board outside of Maura 223. Becoming a class officer is a great way to get involved on campus. If you don't want to commit to an officer position but still want to get involved, Student Senate is the place to be! Student Senate meetings are held every other Thursday at 4pm in Admin 206 and are all about student opinions being heard.

If you have any questions feel free to stop by Lowe 113 or e-mail us at SHGA@setonhill.edu.

We hope you enjoy your first semester here at Seton Hill.

Seton Hill University

Mission Statement

Seton Hill University is a Catholic University rooted in Judeo-Christian values. In the tradition of Elizabeth Ann Seton, we educate students to think and act critically, creatively, and ethically as productive members of society committed to transforming the world.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, hail we greet thee,
Sons and daughters come to meet thee,
Keep us near thee, we entreat thee,
Dearest Seton Hill.

Chorus:

Seton Hill we love thee
Make us worthy of thee
Make us glow with zeal to know
Warm as the skies above thee,
Alma Mater may thy hoary
years but brighter make thy story,
Be to thee a crown of glory,
Dearest Seton Hill.
